Your short, sweet, straight words

Memory

A good memory

Once is forever

This love

This love is my life lesson

This love is the symbol of emotions

This love taught me how to live

What is love

Love happens suddenly

Love is connection chemistry comparability met in a time place and circumstance

As time shifts, so does love

Love is commitment of making it work

Choices

Said that you won't change and cannot that night

Confessed you won't fall in love with anyone else that day

Was in a bubble

Am still here

There is a choice to choose

2 weeks was fast

1 year was faster

Closed the eyes, sitting next to you

Standing in front of you

Asking the question again

Given a choice

What would the answer be

The phase is gone now

The significant choices that seem inconsequential

And love remains

When give a choice

What would you say

Instinctive

Wishing and hoping

Wondering in the little flower garden

Asking the sky if he feels the same

You are instinctive

Moving in the speed of light

Makes you happy

Feeling alone on the little island

Unable to sleep in until the dawn

Staring at the moon, thinking

You are instinctive

Moving faster than the speed of light

Makes you happy

The force of push and pull

One initiates and the other follows

Makes you happy

Forever

Promised forever

Everything brings you in with

Your character, your persona

The love that cannot put into words

Noone could ever make you feel this way

You promised forever

Get above and beyond

Your honor, your faith

The love that cannot put into words

Noone could ever make you feel this way

Passed the point of no return

Love is unknown

Promise you forever

Love you forever

Your Worth

If you really want something

If you really want someone

You fight

Your worth, his worth

How much do you love someone

That's what it's all about

Sometimes you don't give it all your strength

Sometimes you take one step at a time

How much is the love

Your worth, his worth

Fight for what you want

That's what it's all about

Your worth, his worth

Fight for what you want

Like Miracle

When you find yourself not being your true self

You begin to think, "What am I missing"

Then you realize not to have talked with you for quite a while

Conversation is magic

Miracle happens

Scooping you up from under, letting you go light

Finding yourself feeling down and out

You don't know what but, something is missing

Then you realize not to have talked with you for quite a while

Conversation is power

Miracle happens

Scooping you up from under, letting you go light

You are lost without

Nothing means anything more in the world

Conversation is love language

Convert and we communicate

Our Love Story

How do you know you are trustworthy
Noone told you to do so but did it anyway
Didn't understand the meaning of love
Might have, would have misunderstood
Though it meant something at the moment
No matter how strongly it feels
Yet it goes on and you fall in love every moment
Though it meant something at the moment

It Changed It All

Life is like a movie

They say your story is being made by every moment

The story is just a beginning

It changed it all

They say you are becoming a person by every experience

The story is just a beginning

It changed it all

Traveling around, meeting new people

Step by step

One by one

It changed it all

It changed it all

Always

One of the things you admire about

Stay same

Always have been cool and calm

Nice to people anytime

Never loses dignity\

Always, today or tomorrow

Stay same

Always with you

Into Motion

It comes like waves

Waves come into motion

It crushes

Goes on and on

Look toward the horizon

It comes like waves

Waves come into motion

It goes on

Once is Forever

Do you believe there is only one person out there

Have you changed since

Feelings change and evolve

Slowly but steadily

Once is forever

Once is forever

Cinderella Story

Cinderella's every girl's fairy tale

Growing up dreaming to be like Cinderella

A girl becomes into a woman

Learning who you are

Finding your own voice

The dream comes true

Our Conversation

Certain words remind me of our conversation

We have talked more than a thousand pages of words

I feel as though I remember every word

I smile when I remember those words

Carpe Diem

The connection and timing

The stars align and everything starts to make sense

I was invisible, yearning for someone who sees me

You are different for a reason and no one sees you for a reason

You get completed when you find the one

The Intensity of Conversation

A message tings, so does my heart

Seeing the sign of ‘Read’ reconnects back

Seconds feel longer

One straight but sweet word warms the heart

Less is More

The significance of ‘Good’

The meaning of ‘Always’

‘Have a great day’ is your mantra

What Love Taught You

Love is frustrating.

“I am glad to help out”

“I am glad I could make you happy”

Love is mystics.

“What makes you happy?”

“A conglomerate of things.”

Uncertain Future

Uncertainty of what the future holds

Just wait and see.

The Promise

Will you say I'd have changed

You once asked me why you made me happy

This is why

You'd still say so

A Flower

Flowers symbolize love

People give flowers in occasions as though flowers added colors to their loving moments

A flower on the ground looks delicate and elegant but is a strong and independent earthly object

Each and every flower in the field is the shining one up to the Sun

A flower's just waiting, patiently waiting

His Romantics

Waiting in a Aloha t-shirt, smells like a toothpaste for his first date

Loves her home-made puddings the best

His voice on the phone somehow sounded like an old-aged person

Bringing a ton boxes of fruits and vegetables home every night

And he goes 'I don't always ride a taxi'

Birthday, Anniversaries, and Christmas

His favorite worn-out pink t-shirt 356 days

Floor's tiptoe squeaking sound at 2 am

His nails are never cut-deep

Bringing too many takeouts home on the weekend

And he adds 'The car is the only treatment for myself'

Birthday, Anniversaries, and Christmas

Compass

Back in the olden days,

Always said that 'we talked', but we haven't really talked, have we

Do you remember

Truth be told, it was not a joke,

Is it funny the way how things work

It's like compass

You are like mountain

Not just making me want to be a better person, but also letting me motivated for the better

Conversation was everything

Seeing something beautiful in you

Having faith in you

Your personality it represents,

Your persona it embodies

Cast a spell on me

You're scored on my heart

The Idea of Love

Chemistry, connection, compatibility

How much do you love someone

How much do you really love someone

Maybe you are in love with yourself being in love

Maybe you are more loyal to yourself for all you care

A thousand faces on the surface

Revisiting old stories, replaying a series of past moments

There was something there, inadvertently

There's still something close to the heart, seamlessly

Stay with, come with

Stay apiece, begin anew

For evermore

Love is a riddle

To love, to lose

It hurts, it heals

How big and beautiful and greater

Such a beloved, blessed love

Synchronizing time in the eye of beholder

Shining just as bright as the stars in the sky

True as it can be

Ever as before

Long it may continue

Farewell

music swells waltzing around, spinning 'round a glance, an embrace with no ceiling the swirling sky and silver shine inside a frame the presence of sheer pinkness beneath sunlit, sun-kissed wisteria first to flower, first to fall tribute

display a grin and head tilt, reading his text messages smile that makes you melt the love that you always hoped existed a complete admiration

the greatest joy

fill our home with laughter and happiness

freshman of life

- self-love

couldn't be a loser if you knew guards are up when you offend from zero to ninety-nine nothings to extremes

all it takes once?

it's not built in a day?

the tough road is the experience how much you take risks how much throw yourself out there all is freshman of life

we can learn together

you never be alone

satellite of love

every color in every shade these glittering strands in Milky Way catch your dream from the night turn your head to the cries the wonder of the ocean the sound of waves crashing sets the pace puts motions in the waves let the chips fall where they may see your spirits soar

Letter

Feb 22nd, 2022

To You,

In an early February, I met a person who ultimately changed my life upside down.

I was utterly amazed by how amazing you were that night.

But when I look back, I don't think I knew you as much as I thought I did.

Now 1 year has passed, I appreciate you even more.

From the day I talked to you, I entrusted myself and shared anything so I can prove the genuineness of us.

What's great about you is that I feel warmth and safety in my heart when I am talking with you.

I think it's because our directions are similar although our interests are different.

My everyday starts with you and ends with you.

You are my inspiration.
